

Concerns and complaints: Royal Free Hospital

Easy to read information

What should I do if I am not happy with the care I had in hospital?

- Talk to the staff looking after you in hospital.
- Talk to a manager in the ward or department.

Staff looking after you can help solve any problems quickly.

If you don't want to talk to hospital staff about your care then you can contact the staff at the patient advice and liaison service (PALS) confidentially.

- Phone: 020 7472 6446 or 020 7472 6447
- Email: rf.pals@nhs.net
- Write to us at:
PALS
Royal Free Hospital
Pond Street
London
NW3 2QG

If PALS cannot solve your problem they can tell you how to make a complaint.

When should I complain?

It can be easier to make a complaint as soon as you find out there is something to complain about.

You have up to 12 months to make your complaint.

We will make sure your complaint is looked into by the complaints team.

You can write to us at:

Royal Free Hospital
Complaints Department
Executive Offices, second floor

B6 9PB

What happens next?

The complaints team will write to you to tell you they have received your complaint.

They may need to talk to you in person or on the phone to find out more about your complaint.

They will give you an answer to your complaint.

They will write to you to tell you what they found out.
